

When Rain Hurts: An Adoptive Mothers Journey with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome By Mary Evelyn Greene If you've ever worked closely with or loved a child with special needs (specifically autism and FASD) than there is some very relatable material and it's validating to know you aren't the only one who has experienced some of the more shocking behaviors or has thought some of the less than noble thoughts that come with caring for someone with these unique challenges. PDF When Rain hurts donuts Mary Evelyn Greene I don't often give a book a 5 star rating.
